My dear Mr. Carter:

This is to again express my sincere appreciation and tell you how much both Colonel Hinton and I enjoyed being your guest at the opening of the Fat Stock Show, Rodeo and Horse Show.

I was able to witness every performance of the Horse Show classes throughout the show. You folks really don't do things by half measure, as it was certainly a wonderful event. Inclosed is the photograph of General Arnold which I promised to send.

With warmest personal regards and best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Ammon McClellan". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a long horizontal stroke at the end.
