

BOEING AIRPLANE COMPANY

SEATTLE 14, WASHINGTON

WILLIAM M. ALLEN
PRESIDENT

Dear Mr. Carter:

Mr. Schaefer has forwarded to me an autographed copy of the program commemorating the recent flight of the B-50 around the world. Many people have told me that the dinner was a most delightful affair and I very much regret that I was unable to be present. Although I have heard of you for many years, it has never been my good fortune to meet you. You may be sure that if I ever get in your neighborhood that I shall call upon you.

The Boeing Company appreciates your efforts in commemorating the round-the-world flight. It is through people like yourself that air power is achieving its rightful place in considerations which involve our future security.

Yours sincerely,

William M. Allen
