Dear Amon:

It was indeed a pleasure to visit with you again. I appreciate the arrangements made for me at the Fort Worth Club, which contributed very much to my convenience and comfort while there.

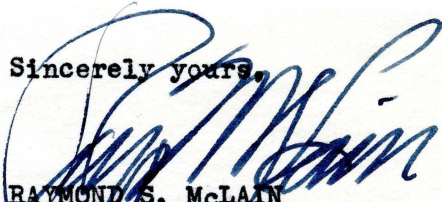

I also appreciate the hat which you gave me, but I fear that my wife is going to appropriate the hat box.

A few days after returning to Washington General Bradley was over for dinner and had occasion to sample the bottle of Scotch which you gave me, so it served a suitable purpose very soon after the transaction.

I always enjoy visiting out there because the people seem to talk my language - they understand me and I understand them. I hope the occasion may arise soon when I can be closer to that part of the country. I want you to know that your personal courtesies were very much appreciated.

With best regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

RAYMOND S. McLAIN
