BLERIOT TELLS OF HIS FLIGHT

First Man to Cross English Channel in An Airliner Dropped Goggles to Do It.

PASSAGE MADE IN 23 MINUTES

Ten Minutes Out of Sight of Land with No Guide but Machine's Direction.

SWEEP OUT OF HIS COURSE

When He Caught Sight of Dover Castle Was Headed for Goodwin Sands.

BROKE PROPELLER LANDING

Last Month on North Atlantic Drop, Disqualified Photographer, and Won Daily Mail Prize.

Bleriot in His New Caudron Type B Is Seen in Enlarged Photographs, and

The Weather

Fair today; partly cloudy tomorrow; temperature unchanged.

THE WEATHER.

VOL. LVIII., NO. 1531.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, JULY 22, 1906—FOURTEEN PAGES

ONE CENT

Bleriot Tells of His Flight

First Man to Cross English Channel in An Airliner Dropped Goggles to Do It.

PASSAGE MADE IN 23 MINUTES

Ten Minutes Out of Sight of Land with No Guide but Machine's Direction.

SWEEP OUT OF HIS COURSE

When He Caught Sight of Dover Castle Was Headed for Goodwin Sands.

BROKE PROPELLER LANDING

Bleriot in His New Caudron Type B Is Seen in Enlarged Photographs, and

Won Daily Mail Prize.

Bleriot in His New Caudron Type B Is Seen in Enlarged Photographs, and

WON DAILY MAIL PRIZE.

Bleriot in His New Caudron Type B Is Seen in Enlarged Photographs, and

WON DAILY MAIL PRIZE.

Bleriot in His New Caudron Type B Is Seen in Enlarged Photographs, and

WON DAILY MAIL PRIZE.

Bleriot in His New Caudron Type B Is Seen in Enlarged Photographs, and

WON DAILY MAIL PRIZE.