Dear Mr. Carter,

Am writing to express my regrets at being unable to be present at the dedication ceremonies for the Amon G. Carter Administration Building Monday morning.

I had accepted an invitation from the city authorities to be present but on Sunday my wife was operated on at the Harris Hospital and was in a very critical condition Monday morning and it was mandatory that I be near her.

I wish to offer my congratulations on the honor you have received by having this great project named for you. Certainly it is a most fitting honor and one of the most deserved ones I know of.

Sincerely,

ARCHIE J. OLD, JR.
Major General, USAF
