Mr. Amon G. Carter,
Star Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Amon:

Maybe I am a little late, but no less sincere, in expressing my gratification upon learning that the great, new airport in your area is to be known as Amon G. Carter Field. I am sorry that the Fort Worth airport is to be abandoned, but suppose that's part of the grinding of the wheels of progress. I happen to know that among the other very constructive things you have done are the services you have rendered to the progress of aviation and somebody else must have shared this knowledge when the decision was arrived at that the great, new field down there is to bear your name. I hope you aren't too old and crabbed to take some real satisfaction from this.

With regards

Sincerely yours,

Amon G. Carter
