Mr. Amon G. Carter
C/O Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

Having been a subscriber for the Fort Worth Star-Telegram for the past thirty years, and having had a small part in our civic responsibilities, working with the civic minded men in the growth, charities, and club service of good old Fort Worth under your leadership, I feel like I would like to present my bouquet of flowers now by telling you how grateful, not only myself, but others feel towards you for the pattern of great leadership you have given.

I passed my fiftieth milestone last year, having lived here all my life. I can remember plenty about the historical background of Fort Worth. Especially have I watched your efforts to do all you could for your city and have watched its growth under your grand unselfish leadership, and pray that you may have many, many more years to continue your great work.

Your Sunday edition of our Centennial (One Hundred years in Fort Worth) was certainly a masterpiece which will surely become a collectors item down through the years. You and your publication are to be commended for this gigantic achievement.

Sincerely wishing you and yours all the blessings of life for the unselfish service and devotion you have instilled in all who have come in contact with you to have, for their own home town.

Sincerely,

DUDLEY HODGKINS COMPANY
