CIVIL AERONAUTICS ADMINISTRATION
WASHINGTON 25

OFFICE OF THE ADMINISTRATOR

March 3, 1950

Dear Mr. Carter:

Congratulations on the article about you in the Fort Worth Press.

All I can say is this - a man has reached the epitome of whatever he is looking for when he can get a write-up like that in a rival newspaper.

Picking up the remark that you are "the fourth civilian ever so honored -- reflects a great credit to Fort Worth" is taking only part of the credit. I think it is a credit to the whole State of Texas. All Texas is proud of you - not only Fort Worth -- and all Texans are proud of you no matter which city they happen to be in anywhere in the United States.

I want you to know that as far as I, personally, am concerned, I am more than proud to call you my friend.

With kindest personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

D. W. RENTZEL
Administrator of Civil Aeronautics
