

at/

The White House,
Washington, D.C.

10, Downing Street,
Whitehall.

May 25, 1943.

Dear Mr. Carter,

It is kind of you to remember about the Texas hat and to take such trouble. I have now received it safely. It is a most handsome hat which I shall be proud to wear, more especially for the compliment which the gift connotes.

Thank you so much also for your good wishes.

Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

Winston Churchill

Mr. Amon G. Carter,
'Fort Worth Star-Telegram'.