

G. B. DEALEY, CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

E. M. (TED) DEALEY, PRESIDENT

JAMES M. MORONEY, VICE-PRES. & SECY

M. M. DONOSKY, TREASURER

THE DALLAS MORNING NEWS
TEXAS ALMANAC AND STATE INDUSTRIAL GUIDE
RADIO STATIONS WFAA AND KG KO

OFFICE OF
G. B. DEALEY
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD

The Dallas Morning News

Oldest Business Institution in Texas

June 4, 1943

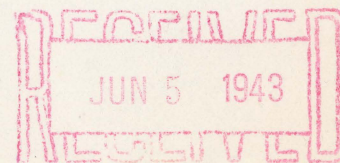

Mr. Amon G. Carter
The Fort Worth News
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Amon:

Here is a clipping from the Washington Times
Herald in which you may be interested.

Cordially,

lzd
Ted Dealey

WASHINGTON
TIMES HERALD

I bet this reference to Star Telegram burned Mr Carter.

EDITORIAL

REAL ESTATE

RESORTS, SCHOOLS

Dear Wash

By HELEN

AMON CARTER, of Texas, has sent Prime Minister Churchill a $150 hat. It's a 10-gallon hat, the sort Jack Garner and Calvin Coolidge used to wear for their campaign pictures.

Mr. Churchill's hat is of ermine and beaver, and it is very, very grand.

Some of Mr. Roosevelt's anonymous secretaries have been trying on the Amon Carter gift hat and find it rather small in the head, but they recognize it for the beautiful piece of cowboy sartorial art it is.

The box which houses the hat is almost as stunning as the hat. Everybody at the White House hopes Mr. Churchill won't have room for the hat or the box when he travels back to England.

Amon Carter, who gave Mr. Churchill this bit of the Southwest, is himself as picturesque as the State of Texas. He is the publisher of the Fort Worth News and runs his end of the world patriotically and financially.

Helen Essary

I've heard a new description