Mr. William Randolph Hearst,
San Simeon, California.

Dear Mr. Hearst: Again, it is a pleasure to extend to you my sincere congratulations as well as my admiration for a reasonable, constructive career as America's outstanding publisher PERIOD. You have fought for the things beneficial to its citizenship and although at times your ideas may have been debatable, in the long run your judgment has been substantiated PERIOD. It is a satisfaction to your many friends and no doubt a disappointment to some of your political enemies to know you are rounding out a great career, in full bloom from a physical, mental and financial standpoint. Keep the good work up. I hope to have the good fortune to help you celebrate the century mark. Sincerely,

ANN CANTER
