

DOMESTIC SERVICE
Check the class of service desired; otherwise this message will be sent as a full rate telegram
FULL RATE TELEGRAM	SERIAL
DAY LETTER	NIGHT LETTER

WESTERN UNION

1211

INTERNATIONAL SERVICE
Check the class of service desired; otherwise this message will be sent at the full rate
FULL RATE	LETTER TELEGRAM
VICTORY LETTER	SHIP RADIOGRAM

W. P. MARSHALL, PRESIDENT

NO. WDS.-CL. OF SVC.	PD. OR COLL.	CASH NO.	CHARGE TO THE ACCOUNT OF	TIME FILED
			FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM

Send the following message, subject to the terms on back hereof, which are hereby agreed to

Fort Worth, Texas,
August 15, 1951

Mr. W. R. Hearst, Jr.,
Examiner
San Francisco, California.

The death of your father yesterday was not only a great loss to his loved ones, associates and friends, but to the publishing fraternity and the nation itself PERIOD Few men in our nation's history ever have wielded the influence that he did or for so long a period PERIOD Many men have lived to his ripe old age, but few ever retained their mental vigor and directed their businesses almost to the end, as he did PERIOD He was a fighter of rare courage. Whenever he took up a cause he went the limit. No one ever had a doubt as to where he stood. In many causes he advocated or opposed that produced the most severe criticism he was later proven right PERIOD It is no exaggeration to say that he was an editorial and business genius PERIOD On the personal side he was kind, generous, and sympathetic. I consider it a rare privilege to have known him and enjoyed his friendship. My deepest sympathy to you, your brothers, your mother, and your associates.

AMON CARTER

Day letter - Paid
Chg Star-Telegram

Day letter- pd chg Star Telegram

W. R. Hearst, Jr
BEVERLY HILLS, Calif

The death of your father yesterday was not only a great loss to his loved ones, ^{and friends} ~~and~~ associates but to the publishing fraternity and the nation itself. Few men in our nation's history ever have wielded the influence that he did or for so long a period. Many men have lived to his ripe old age, but few ever retained their mental vigor and directed their businesses almost to the end, as he did. He was a fighter of rare courage. Whenever he took up a cause he went the limit. No one ever had a doubt as to where he stood. In many causes he advocated or opposed that produced the most severe criticism he was later proven right. It is no exaggeration to say that he was an editorial and business genius. On the personal side he was kind, generous, and sympathetic. I consider it a rare privilege to have known him and enjoyed his friendship. My deepest sympathy to you, your brothers, your mother, and your associates.

Amon Carter

August 15 1951