VELMA SMEDLEY, CLERK

PERSONAL

Mr. Amon Carter, Editor
Fort Worth Star Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas.

My dear Amon:

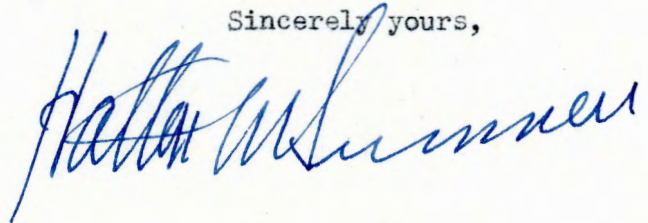

I was glad to see you the other day, and sorry that I did not get to your party. It is true that I did not have an invitation, but I do not need an invitation to anything you are sponsoring.

I had been with the Civil Air Patrol group all day Saturday and until midnight Saturday night. There were two of my very close friends in the hospital, and I wanted to see them. I also hoped to see several other people before returning to Washington - and there was not time enough for everything.

When my term of office expires, I expect to spend a good deal of time in Tarrant County. I hope to have the opportunity of seeing you often.

With kind regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

HWS:L
