Dear Amon:

This is to thank you for your magnificent hospitality, as always, to me while in Fort Worth last weekend. I was sorry to know that you were under the weather when I left. If you come down with pneumonia, it will be understandable, however, in view of the tough weather we had Friday night. I hope however that you are up and about by now, and in your usual bustling, vigorous good form.

I thought the 8th Air Force Anniversary and the Fat Stock Show were a wonderful combination and both great successes. You and your associates deserve and have our deep thanks for arranging these functions and for permitting us to attend.

At luncheon on Saturday I saw young Amon and was very pleased to find him in such evident good health and spirits. My opinion was confirmed that you have a wonderful young man to stride in your gigantic footsteps in the years which lie ahead.

With every good wish to you as always,

Sincerely,

Ira C. Eaker
