The pictures and news story "Mighty 8th Air Force 10 Years Old Tomorrow" in the Sunday Star-Telegram, January 27, 1952, sent to the following:

Lieut. General W. F. Kepner
Alaskan Command
A. P. O. 942
Seattle, Washington, D. C.

Major General C. McMullen
Commanding General
San Antonio AMA
Kelley Air Force Base, Texas

Major General A. J. Old
Commanding General
Fifth Air Division
A. P. O. 118
C/o Postmaster
New York, N. Y.

General Carl A. Spaatz
1522 34th Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Lieut. General Ira C. Eaker, Vice-President
Hughes Aircraft Company
Culver City, California

General J. H. Doolittle, Vice-President
Shell Oil Company
50 West 50th Street
New York 20, N. Y.

Major General Roger M. Ramey
Director of Operations
Headquarters, U. S. Air Force
Room BC-912-A, Pentagon Building
Washington, D. C.

Major General Samuel E. Anderson
Carswell Air Force Base
Fort Worth, Texas

Mrs. Asa North Duncan
(Widow of Brig. General A. N. Duncan)
Five Acre Farm
Newbern, Alabama
WASHINGTON, Jan. 26 (NANA).—White House callers generally agree that President Truman will not seek renomination in November or any other time.

In the meantime, Southerners in Congress were privately pleased by White House revenue requests for federal outlays. But the budget, sizable as it is, is thought to be inadequate by those needing them.

Hearings on tax-fixing and tax-collecting irregularities will be reopened by the House committee investigating the pre-Pearl Harbor massacre of more than 5,000 Polish officers in the Katyn Forest in Eastern Europe. The House investigation committee is scheduled to hear testimony from Karl H. Kleine of Iowa, an eyewitness. Americans captured by the Germans.

The committee's findings are expected to be submitted to Attorney General McGrath by Feb. 14.

The committee's three subcommittees have been working in Savannah, Ga., on the disinterment of the Poles written by eye witnesses. American prisoners of war.

The report on the disinterment of the Poles mysteriously disappeared.

White House callers generally agree that President Truman will not seek renomination in November or any other time. In the meantime, Southerners in Congress were privately pleased by White House revenue requests for federal outlays. But the budget, sizable as it is, is thought to be inadequate by those needing them.

Hearings on tax-fixing and tax-collecting irregularities will be reopened by the House committee investigating the pre-Pearl Harbor massacre of more than 5,000 Polish officers in the Katyn Forest in Eastern Europe. The House investigation committee is scheduled to hear testimony from Karl H. Kleine of Iowa, an eyewitness. Americans captured by the Germans.

The committee's findings are expected to be submitted to Attorney General McGrath by Feb. 14.

The committee's three subcommittees have been working in Savannah, Ga., on the disinterment of the Poles written by eye witnesses. American prisoners of war.

The report on the disinterment of the Poles mysteriously disappeared.

White House callers generally agree that President Truman will not seek renomination in November or any other time. In the meantime, Southerners in Congress were privately pleased by White House revenue requests for federal outlays. But the budget, sizable as it is, is thought to be inadequate by those needing them.

Hearings on tax-fixing and tax-collecting irregularities will be reopened by the House committee investigating the pre-Pearl Harbor massacre of more than 5,000 Polish officers in the Katyn Forest in Eastern Europe. The House investigation committee is scheduled to hear testimony from Karl H. Kleine of Iowa, an eyewitness. Americans captured by the Germans.

The committee's findings are expected to be submitted to Attorney General McGrath by Feb. 14.

The committee's three subcommittees have been working in Savannah, Ga., on the disinterment of the Poles written by eye witnesses. American prisoners of war.

The report on the disinterment of the Poles mysteriously disappeared.

White House callers generally agree that President Truman will not seek renomination in November or any other time. In the meantime, Southerners in Congress were privately pleased by White House revenue requests for federal outlays. But the budget, sizable as it is, is thought to be inadequate by those needing them.

Hearings on tax-fixing and tax-collecting irregularities will be reopened by the House committee investigating the pre-Pearl Harbor massacre of more than 5,000 Polish officers in the Katyn Forest in Eastern Europe. The House investigation committee is scheduled to hear testimony from Karl H. Kleine of Iowa, an eyewitness. Americans captured by the Germans.

The committee's findings are expected to be submitted to Attorney General McGrath by Feb. 14.

The committee's three subcommittees have been working in Savannah, Ga., on the disinterment of the Poles written by eye witnesses. American prisoners of war.

The report on the disinterment of the Poles mysteriously disappeared.