Major Robert L. Schulz
Aide to General Eisenhower
Room 3E 929
The Pentagon
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Major Schulz:

Immediately following General Eisenhower's and your visit to Fort Worth on the occasion of the unveiling of the Will Rogers equestrian, Mr. Carter's office was snowed under with his usual Christmas activities. Since the holidays Mr. Carter has been confined to his home on account of illness and the writer has been in the office only at intervals because of a cold, all of which explains the delay in sending you pictures which we would like to impose upon the General for his autograph. There are three which Electra Waggoner (Biggs), who made the statue would like to have autographed by General Eisenhower as of November 4, 1947.

It shall be appreciated if the General will autograph the other three to Jay Manning, the grandson of Mr. F. J. Adams, who made the presentation of the statue to the City of Fort Worth in behalf of Mr. Carter.

If you can attend to these two requests and return the pictures to Mr. Carter's office, they will be forwarded to the proper parties.

Thanking you, and with best wishes,

Yours very truly,

KD:mm

Secretary to A. G. Carter
