PRESIDENT'S ROOM

December 10, 1948

Dear Amon:

Thank you for the four copies of the editorial that you have sent me. I enjoyed reading it, although I must confess that I was somewhat overwhelmed by the compliment paid me.

My calendar continues as crowded as ever but I hope that Mrs. Eisenhower and I, sometime in the not-too-distant future, will have an opportunity of visiting with you in Texas.

Sincerely,

Mr. Amon G. Carter, President
