Dear Amon:

You are probably aware of the gift that Mrs. Biggs left for us in New York. It is a remarkable piece of work and Mrs. Eisenhower and I regret that we were not at home when it arrived.

It is unfortunate that my last meeting with you was so brief. I do hope that you will let me know when you are again in the East and if our respective schedules find us both in New York or Washington that we may look forward to a more relaxing visit.

I am deeply appreciative of the thoughtfulness which prompted such a handsome gift from such an accomplished sculptress and generous friend.

With warm regards and best wishes,

Cordially,
