My dear Major:

Your letter of the 28 enclosing copy of the General's lecture, "World Peace - A Balance Sheet", received for which please accept my thanks.

I will tuck it in my pocket and read it at the first opportunity. Meanwhile, I am leaving for Houston tonight to attend the American Petroleum Institute directors meeting so I am working at my office tonight and this letter will be signed by my secretary when it is typed tomorrow.

Are you a Colonel officialy yet?

With best wishes, I am
