EISENHOWER INSISTS EUROPE MATCH AMERICAN SACRIFICES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4 (AP).—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower Thursday called on Western Europe to make “equal sacrifices” with the United States in order to attain world peace.

The newly appointed supreme commander of the Western Allies coupled this call with a declaration that the sole purpose of the North Atlantic Treaty movement is to secure tranquility for “all the world, not just for the Western democracies.”

Allies Ponder Refugee Force Of 4 Divisions

FRANKFURT, Jan. 4 (INS). Reliable informants said Thursday night that the Western Allies are considering a plan to organize four divisions of 40,000 men from the refugees who fled into Germany from Russian-occupied lands.

Under this plan the refugee troops eventually would be included in the proposed West European defense army under General Eisenhower.

The four divisions would be added to troops the West German Republic might provide.

General Eisenhower will leave for Europe Saturday for what he said will be “an exploratory” trip to “reassure myself that we are not working at cross purposes with anybody.”

He told a news conference, which included representatives from most nations of the world including Russia, that the American people would have to make greater sacrifices.

Mentions Taxes, Service.

“If every American sacrifice is not matched by equal sacrifices by the peoples and governments of the European democracies,” Eisenhower stated, “we are not going to win this security.”

As examples of sacrifice he mentioned higher taxes and willingness to serve the state in any capacity, military or civilian.

Eisenhower made his statement in uniform. He will tour all of the 12 North Atlantic Treaty countries in uniform. But he stressed his belief that his new mission held no “spirit or intent of belligerence.”

He said the sacrifices he called for at home and abroad must be achieved “in an orderly fashion, but in a sense of urgency.”

Seeking Co-operation.

Eisenhower also emphasized his conviction that the Western nations must “count the cost” of their sacrifices so that no plans or methods employed will “sterilize” their economies. In the long run, he said, “there can be no security without solvency.”

His aim, he said, will be to gain the “confidence and willing co-operation” of the Allied leaders and peoples.

Eisenhower also appeared at a luncheon of senators and government officials. Those who attended quoted him as saying he does not believe it is possible to “190,000,000 backward people,” obviously a reference to Russia—to conquer Western civilization.

Direct Action On Red China Gains Backing

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 4 (AP).—Joint United Nations action against Communist Chinese aggression was reported favored Thursday by some delegates in consultations on what the U.N. should do about the Korean crisis. These delegates were said to feel that the U.N. can not beg Peiping forever for a cease fire.

Worried delegates went through a round of intensive talks on the next step, with the United States reported seeking support for a move to declare the Chinese Reds the aggressors in Korea. Delegates of the United States, Britain, France, Cuba, Ecuador and Norway met Thursday afternoon for the second time in two days
