

Letters to Stewart McDonald and Victor Emanuel

In this connection it might not be amiss to say the erection of this plant will have a substantial bearing on the Maryland Casualty Company's business not to mention the fact that have several years I have been giving the Maryland the marjor portion of my business including that on the oil activities.