Fort Worth Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Amon:

Replying to your letter of March 28th, it is embarrassing not to be able to keep up the pace we set in 1931, and more so, not to comply wholeheartedly with any request of yours. We do feel, however, that present conditions make it necessary to limit the space we take in your special edition in connection with the opening of the Consolidated Aircraft Corporation plant to one-quarter page.

The location of this plant in Fort Worth was a great achievement, for which you are largely responsible, and my only hope is that instead of the last, this is only another celebration the magnitude of which will compel your leadership.

Sincerely yours,

JRP:SW
