Amos G. Carter, Esquire,
The Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, Texas.

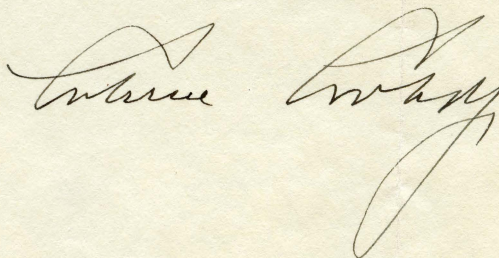

My dear Mr. Carter:

Please accept my thanks for the robust melon selected for me by The Hired Hand of Shady Oak Farm. If its robustness is in any way indicative of general conditions, I can well believe your cheerful assurance that "Texas still is solvent".

The directors of this "corporation" expect a unanimous vote of confidence from the stockholders when the melon is cut, as it will be at the first proper opportunity.

With kind regards, I am

Very truly yours,
