Mr. Amon G. Carter,
c/o The Star-Telegram,
Fort Worth, T e x a s

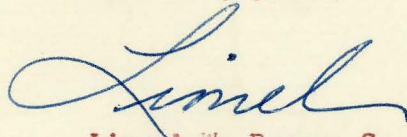

Dear Amon:

I have been unexpectedly tied up in a conference all day today and did not get an opportunity to telephone you, and since I am leaving on my vacation tomorrow for three weeks, I thought it best to drop you a line and tell you that I will go along on the airport deal for an additional five thousand dollars. I would like to go along for ten, but, frankly, can not see my way clear at this time to do so. My loan arrangements are so that I have a certain restrictive borrowing, and since I am putting an unusually nice store at Ridglea, it is costing more than I had anticipated. This store undoubtedly will be the prettiest suburban store in the South.

It was certainly nice to have a chat with you yesterday and I am indeed quite happy to know that you are so much better. As I mentioned to you yesterday, you were more like your old self at the Shady Oaks party, and, as I stated to Lionel, Jr. that evening, I was delighted that he had the opportunity of seeing you in good form.

I trust that the above will be satisfactory, and with kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Lionel W. Bevan, Sr.,
