Mr. John Hay Whitney, PERSONAL
51 East 47th Street
New York 17, N.Y.

Dear Jock: Your telegram received asking me to become member of the Eisenhower Finance Committee. In reply will state I have always been compelled to decline becoming a member of finance committees, irrespective of whether Democrats of Party, Republicans, meanwhile we are doing our share in connection with the problems for which you are working and we will continue to handle our efforts in that particular way. Incidentally, the Star-Telegram carried the first editorial concerning General Eisenhower on February Tenth Nineteen Fifty Two advocating him as the logical candidate for the presidency at that time. Fort Worth has been carrying its share of the load without going into details. With best wishes for the things you are working for. Sincerely

Amon Carter
