Fort Worth, Texas
November 6, 1952

General Dwight D. Eisenhower
Augusta National Club
Augusta, Georgia.

Hooray! For America, General Eisenhower, Mamie and West Texas! The country is to be congratulated and you individually deserve the sympathy of all the folks for the great problems and burdens they have unloaded upon you PERIOD On February Tenth this year, the Star-Telegram presented you as the answer to America's problems PERIOD Your action and conduct since that time has in no way lessened our viewpoint. So, General, as I wired you on your nomination, God Bless Ike and Mamie in which sentiment Minnie, Ruth and Amon Junior join me whole heartedly PERIOD It has been a great battle and you have won for the country at a sacrifice of long toilsome hours and energy PERIOD Take your time to solve your difficulties in keeping with your idealism and whats good for America is good for all of us PERIOD Tuesday night Sid and many of your friends joined Minnie, Amon Junior and me at Twelve Twenty Broad Street where we were equipped with Associated Press "A" wire teletype, television and radio until four AM Wednesday and as we received the glorious returns we were like the old farmer going to town to get tight "Lord, how I dread it" PERIOD Your final broadcast was an affirmation of the honesty displayed in your entire campaign PARAGRAPH

Sid has gone to St. Jo Island to rest up PERIOD Minnie and I are leaving for Chicago Saturday afternoon and will be in New York at the Carlton Hotel from the thirteenth to the nineteenth PARAGRAPH

The pollsters failed to realize that General Eisenhower was on his way for unheard of land slide PERIOD All America is proud of you and Texas in particular is proud of its native son who has achieved the highest honor and recognition of our country and the answer to our befuddled problems PERIOD Please pardon this lengthy telegram evidencing our enthusiasm in your behalf. We could go on indefinitely and never tire anyone but you. Both you have a good time in Georgia, the home of another great American, Senator Dick Russell, who was unfortunately misrepresented in the advertisements carried in Texas papers by Honorable Sam Rayburn PERIOD We told our friends that we had rather support General Eisenhower and lose than to win supporting your opponent as we would have the satisfaction of maintaining our self-respect and pride in a great citizen and a great nation PARAGRAPH

So, again, we say God Bless you, protect you for the benefit of America and the world as well as your friends and loved ones. Sincerely and affectionately

AMON G. CARTER
