Dear Amon:

Armistice Day seems like the perfect time to fire a seventeen gun salute for the guy who did so much to win the war for Eisenhower.

He would have lost in Chicago if it hadn't been for Texas. And there would have been no victory in Texas if you hadn't pitched in to win the first round.

Uncle Newt told me many a tall tale about your power and vision in the Southwest. I believe the tallest tales from now on.

Sincerely,

Tex McCrary.
