

Denver, Colorado.
August 14, 1953.

Dear Amon:

I was delighted to get your letter, and to have your own word for the fact that your recovery is now complete. Sid told me about your trip to the island, and reported that you were really fine again.

The meat arrived (whether parachuted in or not I am not quite sure) and Mamie joins me in many thanks to you.

We are having a fine vacation, though Mamie has been hit by the altitude and has spent most of her time in bed. I have had a golf game every day but one, and the first day came in with an 83, which, of course, pleased me no end. There's too much paper work to do in the office to suit me, but in general things seem to be working out pretty well.

I had not seen the article in Nation's Business, and I shall read it at the first opportunity.

My best to Minnie, and, as always, warm regard to yourself,

As ever,

D.E.

P.S.: I shall consult with Bob Schulz about the "old belt" situation!
