Colonel Robert L. Schulz
P. O. Box 786
Benjamin Franklin Station
Washington, D. C.

Dear Colonel Schulz:

Mr. Carter received the President's belt and has asked me to express his appreciation to the President and to you. He will place it among his collection and treasure it always.

Mr. Carter was also delighted with the knife which the President sent him and has asked that the enclosed silver dollar be forwarded to you. It is an old Spanish custom in Texas not to accept any sharp instrument without paying for it.

Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Secretary to A. G. Carter
