The Honorable Dwight D. Eisenhower
President of the United States
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. President:

At the request of Mr. Sid W. Richardson and Mr. Amon G. Carter the following items have been sent to you by Mr. Richardson's airplane: approximately 75 quails, 24 whole prime ribs, oven-ready, 12 sirloin strips, 12 lamb racks, 12 tenderloin strips, 10 bags of sausage, a package of jumbo shrimp from St. Joseph's Island, one package of delicious walnuts from Shady Oaks Farm, one box of Texas ruby-red grapefruit, and one case of special twelve year old refreshment.

The perishable items have been wrapped especially whereby they are ready for the freezer without further preparation.

It is suggested that the sausage be used within the next month. While it is of the finest and is especially seasoned, sausage tends to lose its flavor after a month even in a frozen condition.

The shrimp has been cooked and frozen.

Please know that it has been our privilege to be of service in this instance. It would be an honor to be of further service; all you need do is command us.

With every good wish for the best of health and your continued success, we are

Sincerely yours,
HOTEL TEXAS
