Colonel Robert L. Schulz - PERSONAL
 The White House
 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue
 Washington, D. C.

Please pass my congratulations along to the boss. I think his frank speech last night was the best and most impressive I have ever heard. Even the die hards should have little to say otherwise. Of course, if the good Lord himself had delivered the same speech some of the opponents would have said its not bad "BUT".

Please tell the General he looked like a million dollars and talked like a billion. He has been patient and tolerant for a long time. I hope he tells Congress to cut bait or fish. Some of his opponents are going to be like a country dog in town.

Ride 'Em Cowboy!

Sincerely,

Amon
