

January 18, 1954.

Honorable Dwight D. Eisenhower
President of the United States
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear President Eisenhower:

Your letter of January 12 to Amon Carter, Jr., has been received during his absence from the City and I am taking the liberty of acknowledging it in his behalf.

Amon Junior will be home next week and I am quite certain he will be delighted to accept cordial invitation on the evening of Thursday, March fourth; however, he will answer for himself promptly upon his return.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

Secretary to A. G. Carter
