 Care. Lt. Colonel Robert L. Schulz
 The White House
 Washington, D.C.

Congratulations on your truly great American speech Monday night. It was marvelous and should have a tremendous and humanitarian effect on worthwhile folks. It's time for honest Americans to stop, look and listen before it is too late. As a matter of fact it is later than some demagogues think PERIOD You have my sympathy in bucking the tide. No one could do a better job. So keep your chin up, smile and smile no matter how much satisfaction it would give to tell 'em what you think.

Sincerely and affectionately

AMON CARTER
