Dear Amon:

This is a very belated expression of appreciation of all your kindness in connection with your trip to Nashville on the occasion of Silliman's recent dinner. I know what it means for one as busy as you are to do what you did, and I could not be more deeply appreciative. I would have written you before, but it was necessary for Mrs. Emanuel to undergo an operation and I have been at my office but very little since my return. Incidentally, she is getting along wonderfully well and everything is very satisfactory, for which I am most grateful. To repeat, I do think it was wonderful of you to go to Nashville, and I am sure everyone is quite as appreciative as I am.

With warmest personal regards,
I am

Sincerely yours

VE W
