NEW YORK 17, N.Y.

March 15, 1945

Dear Mr. Carter:

Mr. Emanuel very much enjoyed your letter of March 5, which was forwarded to him at Mayo's, where he underwent the operation a week or so ago, and which is the reason for my writing you in his behalf.

He is getting along very well and expects to be back in New York within a few weeks.

He sends you his very kind personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

Lewis Stevens
