NEW YORK 17, N.Y.

March 27, 1945

Dear Miss Deakins:

We have your letter of March 24th and I have told Mr. Emanuel of Mr. Carter's very kind gesture, which he most deeply appreciated. I cannot understand why the flowers did not reach him as he is still in Rochester at the Kahler Hotel (the leading hotel) and will probably be there until after Easter.

However, I do not want you to instruct your florist to redeliver the flowers as I have told Mr. Emanuel of the difficulty you had and he asked me to thank Mr. Carter profusely in his behalf for his kind thought of him and to convey to him his very kind personal regards.

Mr. Emanuel is progressing very satisfactorily and hopes to return in excellent health.

With my kind regards to Mr. Carter, too, I am

Sincerely yours,

Lewis Stevens
