Dear Miss Deakins:

I am answering your letter to Mr. Emanuel which is dated August 27th, as he has been ill at home for several days.

I had a chance to speak to Mr. Emanuel about the package containing the eight steaks and he said that apparently these were packaged incorrectly as they were all addressed to him, so I guess he is "ahead of the hounds." In any case, the nourishment he will derive therefrom should certainly be a big help in getting him back to the office soon.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely,

Helen Coons

Secretary to
Mr. Victor Emanuel
