Star-Telegram
Fort Worth, Texas

Dear Mr. Carter:

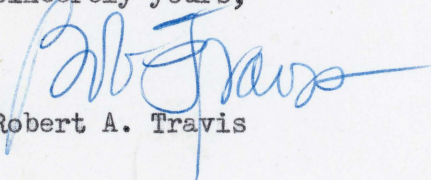

I am very glad to hear from Amon, Jr. that you are doing very well, although it is wiser that you do not personally welcome your guests at the dedication of Amon Carter Field.

It was very kind of you and I am flattered to be included in your invitation to the opening of the airport and only wish that I could take advantage of it. As you know, the Convention here will run through Thursday when I am going to the Bureau dinner with Mr. Honea and Amon, Jr. and there will be a great many people left with whom I will have business which will make it impossible for me to come down.

I think Mrs. Travis has already expressed our thanks and appreciation for the steak that was delivered last week by American Airlines. I was out of town at the time but it was sent immediately over home where we are enjoying it tonight.

Many thanks, Mr. Carter, for remembering me and I am very pleased that you are well on the road to recovery and trust that I will see you hale and hearty before long in Fort Worth.

Sincerely yours,

Robert A. Travis
