

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 22, 1953

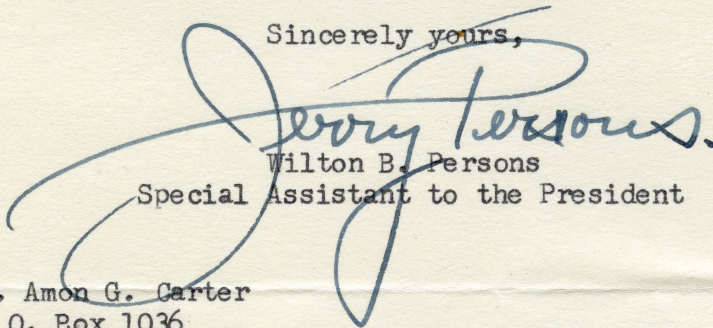

Dear Mr. Carter:

Just a note to thank you for letting me see the results of your opening. I knew I was missing a swell show and have been told personally by some who were there that it went off beautifully.

I still wish I could have been present -- but one of the penalties of this type of work is to not be your own boss, as I know you will appreciate.

With best personal wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Wilton B. Persons
