

THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF WAR
WASHINGTON

February 5, 1938

Dear Amon:

I salute you as toast-master par-excellence! Your anecdotes of the early struggles of aviation gave a human-interest touch which rounded out the complete story of the march of man for the conquest of the air. I felt honored to be on the same program with you and privileged that you introduced me to the gathering of notable leaders in the aviation industry and in the government services.

I look forward with keen anticipation to the renewal of our campaign for a more enlightened American public opinion toward aviation - when I visit you in Fort Worth on February 22d.

With all good wishes to you,

Sincerely yours,
