Dear Mr. Carter:

The Cowboy Band and some two hundred West Texans will be in Fort Worth about 10:00 A. M. Thursday en route to the State Fair. We will have our horses and we will parade from the station through your city. We will probably go to the Texas Hotel. I would like very much for you to meet us there and ride your horse to lead us through the city.

We are still thinking about the wonderful time we had in Colorado Springs with you.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely

Gib
