Dear Amon:

A great many letters have come in to the office here from employees of the company expressing their very sincere appreciation for the Christmas bonus which was voted by the Directors of the company. Nearly all of these letters have asked that the appreciation of all members of the organization be expressed to the Directors.

May I on behalf of all employees of the company, including the official staff, express our appreciation for the very welcome bonus which was paid at Christmas-time by the authority of our Board of Directors. It is sincerely appreciated.

Sincerely yours,

C. R. Smith
President
