

January 31, 1940.

Mr. C. R. Smith, President,
American Airlines, Inc.,
New York Municipal Airport,
Jackson Heights, L. I.,
New York City, N.Y.

Dear C. R.:

I am, at times, negligent about many things but one of the most distressing things is to be negligent in promptly acknowledging remembrances that my friends send from time to time. And for fear that I overlooked one important occasion I, even at this late date, want to thank you for the nice American Airlines water pitcher, tray and cups which you sent "quite a spell" back.

I may have acknowledged it but I am not sure. In any event, the pitcher is lovely enough for a second acknowledgement.

I found that the Rodeo and Fat Stock Show dates are from March 8th to 17th, both inclusive. Is there anyway that we could shove the Directors meeting up to say, Monday, March 18th, have the crowd arrive here Saturday so we could take in the Show Sunday afternoon and night. This would be fine. If you can work the matter out I will appreciate your giving it your thought.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely,

AGC.KD