Dear Amon:

At the Directors' Meeting on April 18th I distributed a sheet showing the dollars volume passenger revenue in 1939 of the fourteen leading railroads in the United States and American Airlines showing American Airlines' dollar volume passenger revenue as exceeded in that year by only nine railroad carriers.

There was an error in one of the items on the sheet and I am, therefore, enclosing a corrected sheet and will ask you to destroy the one originally given to you if you still have it.

Yours sincerely,

R. S. Damon
Vice President-Operations
