Dear Amon:

On April 12th I saw Mr. Alfred L. Aiken, President of the New York Life Insurance Company, in company with one of our New York salesmen, and then left the next day for a trip to Bermuda.

You will be happy to learn that our man sold New York Life a Travel Plan on the first of May, during my absence. There are already more than 40 Travel Cards issued, and we expect this to be one of our most valuable accounts.

It was through you, and in my opinion entirely because of your help, that we were able to get this "plum" which we have been working with small progress for a number of years. Many thanks.

Kindest regards,

Charles A. Rheinstrom
