Dear Amon:

I believe that the list of firms which will participate in the American financing has not been established as yet, but Francis Callery told me sometime ago that he was giving consideration to G. M. P. Murphy & Company and I think that they have a fair chance of doing some of the business.

Thank you for sending the flight information form. I wish that all of our pilots did as good a sales job.

It is also good news that the pickles and popcorn will arrive soon and I shall see that you have a share of them while you are in New York.

Sincerely yours,

C. R. Smith
