United States Senate

COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES

March 14, 1949

Dear Amon:

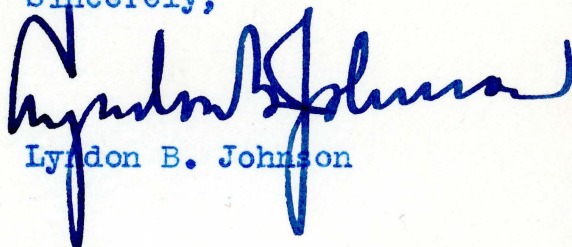

I shall always be very proud of the Star-Telegram editorial about my maiden speech in the Senate. It was a beautiful, though very generous, piece.

Quite a number of prominent Fort Worth and West Texas folks who were against us last summer have written highly gratifying comments on the speech. I am sure the editorial helped inspire their thoughts.

Incidentally, your delicious Texas steak has stood me in good stead the past few days, helping fortify me for the ordeal of the long 'round-the-clock debates in the Senate.

With my continuing best regards,

Sincerely,

Lyndon B. Johnson
