J. NELSON TRIBBY, CLERK

United States Senate
COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES

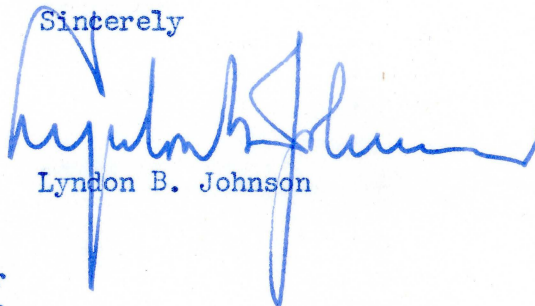

February 20, 1950

Dear Amon:

It was a pleasure and a privilege I shall always remember to have the opportunity to be a host at the little dinner we had for you. I think the presence of the President there was testimony to your unique and wonderful service to this country and expresses the feelings of all of us.

I shall keep the medicine around, waiting impatiently for illness to come.

Sincerely

Lyndon B. Johnson
