Slaps Back Hard
At Charge That He Is Carpetbagger

By MARSHALL M'NEIL
Herald-Post Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 26. - The Garner-for-President movement is a movement to defeat President Roosevelt; but when the people have spoken, that movement will be at an end. Secretary of Interior Ickes pointed out that he was a fine fellow and not a carpetbagger when he went to Texas with the backing and helping of the President to pull you sturdy individualists out of the slough of despondence that you yourselves had created. "You have been much interested in the lives of less favored diers, and pretending that he is nothing more than a carpetbagger. I have visited your state..."
