

TEXAS
Press Clipping Bureau

DALLAS

From

Lufkin (Tex.) News

APR 30 1940

Date

Texas Demos Agree on Rule For Delegates

National Delegation In- structed to Support Vice President

LEADERS MEET

Will Endorse Administra- tion, Not Oppose Third Term

AUSTIN, April 30 (AP)—A political peace program was finally agreed upon today by opposing leaders in the Roosevelt and Garner presidential factions in Texas.

It was agreed at a conference of state party leaders that the Texas delegation to the National Democratic Convention would be instructed for Garner, that the Roosevelt-Garner administration would be endorsed, and that the delegation would not participate in any stop-Roosevelt movement.

The agreement was reached at a conference of political leaders meeting in Austin, including Myron Blalock of the Garner forces and A. J. Wirtz, who has been urging re-nomination of President Roosevelt.

Ickes Feud With Publisher Flares

FORT WORTH, April 30 (AP)—The Fort Worth Star-Telegram carried on the controversy between Publisher Amon G. Carter and Harold Ickes, secretary of the interior, with a taunt Monday that Ickes can't take it.

Mr. Ickes Irritates Easily was the title of an editorial which appeared along with an open letter from Carter to Ickes. Ickes had written Carter several days ago, sending copies to Texas congressmen, answering an editorial in which he said he had been referred to as a carpetbagger.

The cabinet member wrote he understood the publisher and his associates had sent political carpetbaggers into Wisconsin for the primary elections in behalf of the John Garner campaign.

The interior secretary, said the editorial Monday, "could dish it out—as everybody knows. But evidently he can't take it." Referring to a statement by Ickes that he had gone to Texas "bearing gifts—rich gifts—not a few of them eloquently solicited by the great editor of Fort Worth," the editorial said, "Ickes reveals a startling concept of his own place in politics and government."

Allocations to Texas under PWA were not regarded as gifts, the newspaper said, nor was Ickes' part any other than that of an agent.

Carter, in his letter, denied the Texas Garner-for-president movement is to defeat Roosevelt, as the cabinet member claimed. Replying to Ickes' assertion that Carter would be among the first to the pie counter if Roosevelt is reelected, Carter said:

"Frankly, if the president is re-elected, he will be my president as well as yours, and if there be a pie counter left, we shall reserve the right, even without your gracious permission, to demand and expect for Texas the same treatment accorded any other state in the union."

Carter concluded by inviting Ickes to his Texas ranch when the campaign is over—"if you want to rest from the cares and responsibilities you have and assume."